

Orthodox Christian Laity

2020: OCL MAXIMIZES OPPORTUNITIES & EMBRACES REMOTE COLLABORATION

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times..." — Charles Dickens

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Argo Georgandis-Pyle, President
Peter J. Petkas, Vice President
William Souvall, Vice President
Dr. Gayle Woloschak, Vice President
George Karcazes, Secretary
George Pontikes, Treasurer
William Carras
Alice O. Kopan
Peter N. Marudas
George E. Matsoukas
Alex Petkas
Peter Zarras

ADVISORY BOARD

His Eminence, Metropolitan ISAIAH
His Eminence, Archbishop BENJAMIN
His Eminence, Archbishop MICHAEL
His Eminence, Archbishop NATHANIEL
Rev. Dr. Timothy B. Creemens
Rev. Fr. Nicholas J. Greanias
V. Rev. Dr. Chad Hatfield
Rev. Fr. Michael Massouh
V. Rev. Fr. Steven J. Vlahos
Charles R. Ajalat
Jim J. Demetrios
Albert Foundos
Brian Gerich
John Kaloudis
Nicholas Karakas
Andrew Kartalis
Anthony Kasmer
Elizabeth MacNeil
John Maddex
Frederica Mathewes-Green
Ron Muresan
Dr. Nicholas Pappas
Dr. Teva Regule
Judge John Regule
Stacy Sennott
Dr. William J. Tenet
Dr. Helen Theodoropoulos
Dianne N. Thodos

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

David Oancea

As 2020 comes to a close, the Board of Orthodox Christian Laity sends warm greetings for Christmas and the New Year, and lifts up prayers for you and your loved ones' well being. Despite the many challenges of this year, we have faith that God is greater than any obstacle, and that he is "an ever present help in times of trouble" (Ps 46:1). We also recognize that it is often those very challenges and obstacles that cause us to stop and reassess our situation and potentially guide us onto a better path filled with possibilities we hadn't considered or thought possible.

In Pursuit of Orthodox Christian Administrative Unity

By your prayers and with your moral and financial support, Orthodox Christian Laity has continued the pursuit of Orthodox Christian administrative unity in America. This is OCL's primary objective for several reasons, among which are: 1) Canons of church governance mandate the principle of one bishop in one geographic region, contrary to the overlapping of territories based on ethnic background. 2) Precious resources may be more efficiently employed when pooled together instead of using those resources to duplicate the same programs and services. 3) A Patriarchate on the North American continent gives the Orthodox Church a united voice and presence in this part of the world on the religious and civil plane. Using remote meeting platforms like ZOOM, the Board has met frequently since April and continued to inform and educate the laity and clergy via its website (ocl.org), social and print media.

OCL has focused on highlighting Pan-Orthodox agencies, organizations and local community service programs that bring faithful together. These efforts display the fact that when working together, everyone's common mission of fulfilling the gospel message is magnified and creates a wider and deeper impact. What Pan-Orthodox grassroots efforts are you involved with or support? We want to create a Grassroots Network of these efforts to display one of the most important advantages of an administratively united church. We need your help, feedback and input (email us at ocladmin@ocl.org)!

Projects and Activities

During May/June, OCL published the booklet, Remembering Orthodox Christian Laity Board Members, Eulogies and Tributes, which was compiled and edited by Director George Matsoukas and mailed to everyone on OCL's mailing list. As a way to increase contact and collaboration of board members as a group on a regular basis, one-hour Monthly Mastermind Meetings commenced in October. Board members join the meeting on the last Sunday evening of each month to brainstorm and discuss current matters.

Annual Meeting and Program

Due to the pandemic restrictions, the 33rd Annual Meeting and Program took place online on November 13, 2020. We looked forward to the opportunity to be on the campus of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary as originally planned; nevertheless, the online events did allow wider participation by board members and other interested individuals. The Board...

- commemorated Archbishop Nathaniel's 40th Anniversary of Episcopacy and his dedicated service as an Advisory Board Member for decades.
- expressed its appreciation to Archbishop Elpidophoros for preparing the video greeting and blessing, and discussed OCL's response to his invitation for "ideas or proposals you may have for the betterment of our Church in America" related to the drafting of the new charter for the GOA.
- conveyed appreciation to George Matsoukas for his 20 years of exemplary, dedicated, and indefatigable service as Executive Director, as well as his continued passionate service on the board.
- reviewed the plans for the online interview with Professor Alexander Kitroeff to discuss his book, The Greek Orthodox Church in America – A Modern History, which emphasizes OCL's significant contribution to Orthodoxy in America.
- discussed ways that OCL can reach out to clergy and laity to strengthen lay participation in governance and other areas of church life via local chapters; monthly Mastermind meetings; co-hosting a conference and creating a network of Orthodox lay organizations.

Very Rev. Dr. Chad Hatfield presented an extremely interesting program on American Orthodox Saints from historical sources as well as his own personal experience after having lived in Alaska and served as Dean of St. Herman's Seminary for many years. The video of this presentation will be posted on ocl.org.

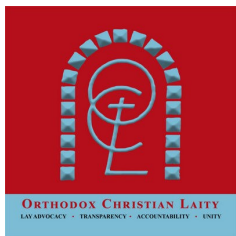

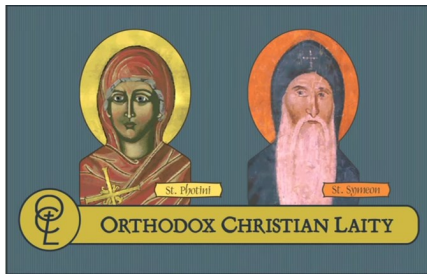

Organizational Developments

In August 2020, George E. Matsoukas retired from the position of Executive Director at which he excelled so extraordinarily for the past 20 years. In his report to the Annual Meeting in November, George wrote: "I take this opportunity to thank the board, supporters and friends of OCL for being part of my 20-year stewardship of the organization. Together, we have built an educational and information ministry that continues to make a difference in the life of the Church." George will continue to maintain the office in West Palm Beach and remain a passionate member of the Board and offer mentorship to David Oancea, the new director, who commenced his duties in September. David has worked with OCL since 2003 as webmaster. He serves as Chancellor of the Romanian Diocese of the Orthodox Church in America, and with the blessing of His Eminence, Archbishop Nathaniel, accepted his new role with OCL.

With gratitude to and in honor of George Matsoukas for his passionate and dedicated service, the Board is sponsoring the publication of some of his musings/opinion essays, entitled Under One Roof: Uniting the Orthodox Church of America. The book, in the words of Fr. Frank Marangos: "promotes "the urgent restoration of jurisdictional unity and the strengthening of the historic role of the laity in the conciliar governance of the Orthodox Church in the United States."

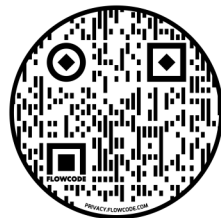

On the insert included with this newsletter, discover how to receive your own personal copy of Under One Roof while you continue to impact and help advance the unity of the Orthodox Church of America.

See Orthodox Christian Laity in Action!

OCL's library of educational and documentary videos highlights the history of the organization and of Orthodoxy in America.

To see all videos: Visit www.youtube.com/user/oclaity/videos or scan the QR code to the right with your phone's camera.

Prayer to Jesus Christ

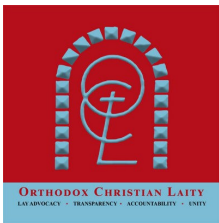

*On the occasion of the meeting of
SCOBA Bishops
November 30-December 2, 1994*

Lord Jesus Christ or God, we thank you for the holy Church in North America, which you have gathered from the native peoples here and from our forebears in all nations.

As our fathers in God gather in holy council, we ask you, as the Lord of Hosts and Prince of peace, who made your angels spirits and your ministers a flaming fire, and who spoke to Elijah in a still small voice, to purify and sanctify our souls and bodies, so that we, their spiritual children, may walk with them in the way of your commandments.

Guide them in due season into one, holy and apostolic Synod, so that with one heart we may give thanks, with one mind we may confess, and with one voice we may proclaim, your sublime and majestic name; together with your Father without beginning, and your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Make your gift of appreciation and support via Check, Credit Card or Securely Online.

For any gift of $100 or more, we will send you a copy of George Matsoukas' new book,
Under One Roof: Uniting the Orthodox Church of America.

Choose your donation amount:

Seraphim-$500 Cherubim-$350 Archangel-$200 Angel-$100 Other - $_____

Name_____

Street Address_____

City, State, ZIP_____

Email_____

(over)

THANK YOU!

1. To donate by check, please make payable to "OCL."

Return completed form with check in the enclosed envelope.

OCL is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization

2. To donate by credit card, please fill out accordingly.

One-Time Monthly

Visa MasterCard AmEX Discover

Card Number: _____ Expiration: _____ CW: _____

Signature: _____

Please print name as it appears on card: _____

3. To donate securely online, please visit: www.OCL.org/Donate or call 561-585-0245.